BIO

After making the move down to Perth in his draft year to focus on his football and complete his year 12 studies, he was able to play a full season with East Fremantle in the WAFL Colts competition where he became one of the best midfield products out of WA leading into the 2020 AFL draft.

Carroll will be heading east after being selected by Carlton with pick 41 in the 2020 National Draft, where he will be eager to learn off some of the best midfielders in the competition.
