BIO

Jay grew up in Warrnambool, Victoria and played his junior football for South Warrnambool. Not only was Jay an elite footballer but also represented Australia at the 2018 World Basketball Championships.

Jay was selected by Collingwood with the 40th pick in the 2019 AFL Draft. After focusing on basketball throughout his teenage years, Jay burst onto the scene with a standout 2019 season representing VIC Country and being selected in the NAB League team of the year.

Jay still shows a keen interest in the NBA/NBL and would look to pursue Business and Leadership courses in the coming years.
