Playing junior football for the Mitcham Hawks in South Australia, then graduating to Sturt in the SANFL, McEntee represented the state in the 2019 National Championships.

Overlooked in the draft, the hard bodied midfielder returned to Sturt's SANFL League side in 2020, cementing himself as a strong and consistent player across the competition.

He was picked up in the mid-season draft as a midfielder who can drift forward, and is capable of slotting into an AFL line-up.
