BIO

From Perth, Hutchings played junior football for the Coolbinia Junior Football Club, and later represented Western Australia at the 2007 National Under-16 Championships. Zoned to the East Perth Football Club, where he played in the WAFL colts, Hutchings made his senior debut for East Perth in August 2008. He went on to play all remaining matches, and the following season played in the club's first 7 matches, before being named in Western Australia's team for the 2009 National Under-18 Championships. Hutchings was named as captain of the team that went on to win the championships, and was best on ground in the game against the Northern Territory. Although he was not named in the under-18 All-Australian team, he was one of 75 (13 WA-based) players invited to the AFL draft camp, where he went on to finish equal third in the beep test, with a score of 14.12. Even after a stellar draft year, Hutchings was overlooked at the 2009 National Draft in November 2009, however was selected by the St Kilda Football Club with the 20th pick in the following month's Rookie Draft.
