BIO

Growing up on the Gold Coast, Kuhnemann played his cricket for The Southport School and Gold Coast Cricket club where he developed into a left arm spinner. In 2014, Kuhnemann represented Australia Under-19 and toured Sri Lanka. Kuhnemann collected 35 wickets in Queensland's Premier Cricket competition in 2015-16, including a haul of 7/91 against Wynnum/Manly in February.

Kuhnemann was handed a rookie contract by Queensland for 2016-17 and was named in the Cricket Australia XI squad for the 2017-18 JLT One-Day Cup. He made his List A cricket debut in the 11th match of the tournament against New South Wales. He bowled five overs and took his first List A wicket, getting Kurtis Patterson out stumped. In the second innings he scored 14 runs off 13 balls batting 11th for Cricket Australia before he himself was stumped, ending their run chase 93 runs short. He made his Twenty20 debut for the Brisbane Heat in the 2018-19 Big Bash League season on 1 February 2019.

Kuhnemann is studying a Bachelor of Property at Bond University. He loves Surfing and spending time on the beach as well as travel.

TESTIMONIALS

“While everyone was justifiably excited by the innings, the thing that probably got a bit overlooked was that Matt held his own to take 3-50 from eight overs and dismiss Darcy Short in the process. When you consider that was just his second game for Queensland, it indicated that he has a pretty good temperament for the game.”
