BIO

Oscar grew up in Geelong and attended Geelong College where he would go on to Captain the First XVIII Football team. His leadership and workethic would also see him selected as co-captain of the Geelong Falcons.

Oscar was selected by Geelong in the 2018 National Draft under the father-son rule, following in Billy Brownless footsteps who played 198 games for the Cats between 1986 – 1997. The hard running midfielder will look to break into the strong Cats midfield in the near future.
