BIO

Born in Perth, Patrick and his family moved 465km north to the farming town of Northampton, where he and his two brothers revelled in the open spaces and loved outdoor activities.

Standout performances for Northampton as a teenager saw Cripps return to Perth to play juniors and Colts for East Fremantle, earning All-Australian selection as WA vice-captain in the 2013 Under 18 Championships.

In need of an elite young midfielder to build their playing list around, Carlton selected Cripps with the 13th pick in the 2013 National Draft, making his senior debut in Round 4, 2014.

After battling injuries for most of his debut season, 2015 saw Patrick explode on the scene to finish second in the AFL Rising Star award and become the second youngest Blue to win the club's Best & Fairest at just 20 years of age.

In 2016, Patrick developed into the most effective contested ball-winner in the competition, before a back injury and broken leg temporarily halted his upward progress in 2017.

Patrick is a proud ambassador for 'My Room' children's cancer charity, always willing to help raise vital funds and, more importantly, put smiles on the faces of kids doing it tough.

Always with time for the fans, his friendly easy-going nature makes him immensely popular with the younger generation and an ideal fit for community causes and the corporate world, where he currently holds an ambassadorial role with Nike.

a little kid smile, even more so when they’re going through a tough time.
I’m inspired to help support My Room find a cure for childhood cancer so that one day these kids can smile without a worry in the world.”
