BIO

Sam has strong records behind him in all three-formats as a batter.

Known for his ability to adapt to the match situation, this is particularly prevalent in List A cricket where he has the highest average in the history of one day cricket (59.78).

He has played around the world for Warwickshire, England Lions and has been involved in the Bangladesh Premier League.

After starting the 2022 season with a bang, he will be hoping performances domestically including in The Hundred for Welsh Fire can catapult him into the international arena.
