Cooper made his mark the following summer in a game for the Prime Ministers XI against a touring West Indies side scoring 160 off only 120 balls. Whilst playing club cricket in Scotland in 2010, Cricket Netherlands approached him about the possibility of representing them which Tom agreed to. After playing domestically in the Netherlands Tom was handed his ODI debut which he scored 80 not out and got Man of the Match, he passed 50 in 5 of his first 7 ODI innings' including his maiden 100. He was awarded the Melbourne Renegades MVP for his superb BBL7 campaign and was vice captain during BBL8 and was a key

Part to helping the Renegades lift the title. He finished the 2019 Sheffield Shield season as the second leading run scorer.
